IJA rather pleasant dance, and palatable supper, came off at Taylor's Hall last Friday evening. The "machine" was principally run by military folks from Fort Riley.

The Lawrence Republican complains that it has not received the Union lately. It was a blunder of our own. Thank you, for calling our attention to it.

Fire.-Michael Hogan, on Chapman's Creek, nw had his fine farm cleared of house and fence by se a prairie fire, last Tuesday. It is supposed to have originated from ashes, about the house.

AN IMPROVEMENT .- The Stage Company have changed their stopping place from Indianola to Topeka. It was always a perfect torture for a passenger to lay over at Indianola.

THE PRINTER comes marked "X.' We will, sw exactly. There is no more readable publication n in the country. We would remark that the w Sentinel played-out some three years ago, and that we are upon the ruins of it and three others.

THE TURE -Those noted racers, "Right Bower," and "Trump," will run, near this city, on next Saturday, the 18th, for a purse of $200.
